

Dear authors

We have received expert review of your manuscript. You will see that revision of your manuscript is advised, and suggestions are offered for improving the manuscript and its impact. If you are prepared to undertake the work required, I would be pleased to consider the paper for publication in Talanta.

For your guidance, reviewers' comments are appended below.

As Editor, I recommend you a deep revision of your manuscript before sending it back to reviewers. If the English is not deeply corrected, I'll be sorry to reject this paper. With ever-increasing standards of excellence in both research and publishing, it is in an author's best interest to make sure his/her paper is in its best possible form when submitted for publication - that includes the quality of the written English, adherence to the Guide for Authors, and the presentation of factual, accurate data.

If you have difficulty with the English language, you may consult a professional language editing service. There are numerous services available throughout the world.
